CHAPTER 355.

AN ACT relating to guardians and wards, and amendatory of section 3970, of the revised statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3970, of the revised statutes, ^{Amending section 3970, R. S.} is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 3970. The marriage of any female who is under guardianship shall terminate the right and authority of the guardian as to the custody and education of the ward only; but the county court may, in its discretion, upon the application of such ward, discharge such guardian and require him to account to said court and pay over and deliver to such ward all the estate, moneys, credits and effects remaining in his hands, or due from him on such settlement; provided, that no such order shall be made in any case when the same shall be contrary to or inconsistent with the terms of a last will and testament under which such estate is held for or comes to such minor; or may, in its discretion, upon such application, discharge such guardian and appoint another in his place, who shall give bond as required by law in other cases, and to whom such estate, moneys, credits and effects shall be paid over and delivered, and who shall have the authority conferred by this chapter upon a guardian after the marriage of his ward.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 8, 1887.
